

God's Voice vs. The Enemy's Voice / The Flesh

Becoming a Prayer Warrior: A Personal Journey

© 2010-2013 Susan C. Evans

www.SusanEvans.org

God's Voice	The Enemy's Voice / The Flesh
<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Selfless</li><li>• Doesn't contradict Scripture</li><li>• Quiet and confident; not forceful</li><li>• Personal</li><li>• Often the opposite of what you expected</li><li>• Leads gently; doesn't push</li><li>• Focused on the present, on what you should do today</li><li>• Peace results when obeyed</li><li>• Sometimes seems impossible, but God empowers you to do it</li></ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• Uses logic and reasoning to persuade you to do it</li><li>• Self gain (selfish)</li><li>• Sometimes based on emotion</li><li>• Urgent</li><li>• Forceful; gives orders</li><li>• Works with what we pre-suppose</li><li>• Motivated by fear of what other people think (or other fear)</li><li>• Focused on the past (to condemn us) or on the future (to worry us)</li><li>• No peace; tumult</li></ul>